Welcome to INMR 2019 World Congress along with PPC Insulators!

Dear business partner,

PPC Insulators is looking forward to welcoming you at our booths no.9&10 in the 2019 INMR WORLD CONGRESS in Westin La Paloma Hotel & Conference Center, Tucson, Arizona USA, on October 20 - 23, 2019.

PPC as a Key partner of the event is a proud contributor to the congress with 3 technical presentations prepared by our experts:

— Markku Ruokanen; PPC Group Quality and R&D Director

Title: How to add Intelligence on Ceramic Insulators?

— Eduardo Hilsdorf; Sales Director of PPC Santana for Latin America region

Title: Hybrid insulator for distribution lines – advantages and application experience

— Patrick Maloney; Chief Engineer at PPC USA

Title: Porcelain insulators under cyclic loading

The main motto of the PPC participation at the INMR 2019 congress is:

“Porcelain = reliable insulation of the past, present, and future.”

PPC porcelain technology laid the foundations of the power industry and continues to drive the insulation industry around the globe.

At the exhibition, the product champions, as well as the latest development of our portfolio, will be presented. We cordially invite you to take a detailed look at our products and discuss your needs and ideas with our experts.

Looking forward to seeing you in Tucson!
